Itinerary

Day 1: Flight to Namibia

Day 2: Arrive in Windhoek, transfer to Guestfarm
Lodge in the country not far from the airport
Relaxing afternoon on this rustic farm. After p.m coffee and cake we depart on a nature drive on this 5000 hectare wildlfe reserve ending with a sundowner under a setting African sun

Day 3: Drive to the Kalahari semi-desert
Lodge in between the red sand dunes
Afternoon game drive in the Kalahari viewing a variety of animals. The many Camelthorn Trees are a dominant feature of this unique semi-desert paradise

Day 4: Drive to Sesriem/Sossusvlei
Lodge near Sesriem
Drive via Maltahohe over the Zaris Pass into the unique dune sea of the mighty Namib Desert . We continue northwards between the sand sea and the Zebra and Naukluft Mountains that are part of the Namibian central escarpment. Visit to Sesriem Canyon

Day 5: Sossusvlei
Lodge in the Namib Desert
We depart as early as possible on a drive into this great sand sea. We continue to the famous Dead and Sossus Vleis to walk among the dunes and photograph this beautiful landscape. We may decide to climb one of the highest dunes in the world

Day 6: Via the Ghaub and Kuiseb Passes to Swakopmund
Overnight at a comfortable Hotel or guesthouse
Along the sand sea and over the gravel plains of the Namib, we continue to the cosy town of Swakopmund on the mighty Atlantic Ocean. We enjoy a fine seafood dinner overlooking the ocean

Day 7: Swakopmund
Overnight at a comfortable Hotel or Guesthouse
We are booked on an interesting boat cruise on the Walvis Bay. There are an interesting variety of sea animals and birds to be seen on this special adventure trip. A number of surprises await us.

Day 8: Drive to the Erongo Mountains
Lodge amongst the massive granite boulders of the Erongo
A lovely area to walk, we may choose to do both a morning and a sunset guided walk. The local guides will share their in-depth knowledge of the African bush with us

Day 9: Drive to the Etosha National Park
Okaukuejo Restcamp at the waterhole
We arrive at Etosha, a park over 24000 sq km in size and teeming with wildlife, including elephant, rhino and lion. We go on a number of game drives to visit the many waterholes, open plains and Mopane thickets hoping to make a rare and special sighting

Day 10: Etosha National Park
Restcamp at Halali
We continue on our game drives on the many small roads in this park. A visit to the Pans edge and the waterholes Salvadore, Rietfontein and Nebrowni are a must. On the early morning game drive we have the biggest chance of finding those elusive Etosha lions and leopards

Day 11: Drive to Eastern Etosha
Lodge near Namutoni, eastern Etosha
Another day of wildlife viewing. We visit the vast Andoni Plains and the Fishers Pan, a haven for the many water birds found inland. We lunch at the historically interesting Namutoni Fort and depart for our special lodge late in the afternoon

Day 12: Drive via Tsumeb and Otavi to the Waterberg
Restcamp or lodge at the Waterberg
On the way we visit the mysteriously deep Otjikoto Lake. The Waterberg is a nature paradise, geologically fascinating and famous for its big variety of trees and shrubs. There are a variety of interesting walks to choose from, including up to the top of the plateau

Day 13: Drive to Windhoek
To the highests lying lodge in Namibia
We travel via Okahandja and the wood carvers market to our lodge in the Khomas Hochland Mountains. We are booked on the Big Cats tour and take an interesting drive to visit the leopard, lion and cheetah that are at home in these hills

Day 14: Flight back home
Before we travel to the airport, we have the opportunity to vist the bustling and cosmopolitan African capital of Namibia, Windhoek. Historically interesting with many special shops and friendly people

Day 16: Arrive back home

Please note:
You are welcome to make changes to the above program to create your very own unique tour.
The program may change slightly depending on the lodges available at time of booking.
